AIP shall have the right to publish the Article in any medium or form, or by any means, now known or later developed.

AIP shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included. The Author(s) reserve all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights. If the Article was prepared under a United States Government contract, the Government shall have rights in the copyright to the extent required by the contract, and the Author(s) shall notify AIP of any such rights. The Author(s) represent and warrant: (1) that the Article is original with them; (2) that the Article does not infringe any copyright or other rights in any other work, or violate any other rights; (3) that the Author(s) own the copyright in the Article or are authorized to transfer it; and (4) that all copies of the Article the Author(s) make or authorize will include a proper notice of copyright in AIP's name. If each Author's signature does not appear below, the signing Author(s) represent that they sign this Agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the Authors, and that this Agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the Authors.

A work prepared by a U. S. Government officer or employee as part of his or her official duties is not eligible for U. S. copyright; however, foreign copyright laws may differ. Thus this form should be signed even by U. S. Government officers or employees. Signing of this form will not affect U. S. Copyright law provisions in the case of works of the U. S. Government.

If all the authors are in this category, check the box here and return the signed form. ☐

AIP hereby grants to the Author(s) a nonexclusive license to do the following:

- (a) After publication of the article by AIP, to publish all or part of the Article in any compilation or publication limited to the Author(s)' own works, or in any compilation or publication approved by AIP, and to make copies of the Article for the Author(s)' own use for lecture or classroom purposes;
- (b) To make an oral presentation of the Article;
- (c) If the Article was prepared as a work made for hire, to allow the employer or commissioning party to make copies of the Article for its own internal use.

AIP and the Author(s) further agree that, after publication of the Article by AIP, third parties wishing to republish the Article must obtain written permission from both the Author(s) and AIP; provided, however, that only AIP's permission is necessary with respect to republication of entire journal issues which contain the Article.

Please sign the applicable portion of the form and return it promptly to the Editor's Office. We cannot begin the production process until this signed form has been received. Please help us to expedite the publication of your paper with your immediate response.
